Dear Sir,

I have but just returned in safety, through God's goodness, from a four months' visit to Canada, undertaken in the interests of the work among destitute and orphan children under my care.

I cannot here attempt any description of my experiences in that country, or of the results so far as our work is concerned, but I am sure it will be a cause of unfeigned thankfulness and gratitude to God, in the hearts of all who have helped me, to know that of the many hundreds of boys and girls sent to Canada and placed out in life there during 15 years, (500 during the past 3 years) only only four boys have failed, and of these, two are now doing better; while not one girl out of the large number emigrated is known to be living other than a respectable, virtuous and industrious life. Very many boys and girls are living as Christ's servants, and my heart was filled with joy on visiting family after family where our youngsters were, to hear of the reality and thoroughness of their Christian career.

I hope in the pages of Night and Day, and by other means soon to give a fuller account of what befall me.

Meanwhile with the dark and cold days of winter before us, we propose to continue, by God's help, our blessed work of rescuing from peril, suffering and shame, the little orphan or Destitute Children who still throng the streets of our four-million-peopled city.

Will you not help us by prayer and by your offerings of love to carry on this work for the Lord Jesus?

I am sorry to learn that during a portion of my absence the daily receipts very seriously declined, so much so indeed indeed that our Treasury is to-day quite empty. I feel that many who have for years so generously & lovingly held up my hands will be grieved to hear of this, and will desire to send immediate help.

With great pleasure I enclose for your acceptance a little narrative of our Girls' Village Home, from the facile pen of my dear fellow-labourer, the Hon. Secretary.

May the good Lord use it to quicken your interest in aid practical sympathy with my poor "bairns"! I am, ^{Dear Sir,}

Your obedient servant,

Thos. M. Ward.

P.S.

I enclose an addressed envelope for reply, but donations may be sent to our Treasurer, W. Fowler Esq., M.P., or to any Member of our Committee.

P.O. Orders should be made payable only at the G.P.O., and should be crossed (as cheques are) "London & South Western Bank Bow Branch."

An acknowledgment of every gift will be sent by return of post.

Well Josiah, I received your letter and was glad to hear that you got home safe. We had not time to help Fanny so we can not tell you about her business but they straightened up. Babe has been sick for about 3² weeks. The rest of us are well. Margaret's teeth bother her some. No sowing or ploughing going on yet.

John has got moved. Robert Taylor has left. Maggie Bowman wants to be remembered to you and Ellen. I have no particular news.

I will write a letter when I can find anything to write about. Be kind enough to answer. Necessity compels to use Post Card.

TAYLOR FAMILY.

RICHARD TAYLOR, born in Yorkshire, England, Dec.7,1799, became interested in the Methodist Episcopal Church and while assisting the Minister at East Bridgeford, Nottinghamshire he met Mary Millington. They were married in East Bridgeford, Dec.12, 1823. They lived at East Bridgeford for a time later removing to Derbyshire and Sheffield, Yorkshire. While in the latter place he acted as local preacher and kept a toll-gate. In 1840 he and his family removed to Canada, living a short time at Barriefield and later going to Hartington, Ont., where his brother Robert was living. The journey over from England was by sailing vessel and lasted for sixteen weeks. Their children, of whom there were nine ranging from fifteen to two years of age, gave them considerable trouble on such a lengthy voyage. Food ran low and the boat was vermin-infested so badly that the clothes had to be trailed in the water after the boat. At Quebec the father went ashore to get provisions and was left behind and was unable reach the boat until it had reached Montreal.

At Hartington he purchased, as is shown by the record in the Registry Office, Kingston, Oct.31,1840 from Samuel H. Lockwood and wife, deed registered June 26,1841, the South half of the East half for 60 pounds fifteen shilling. When this was done he had just sufficient money to buy a cow and cow-bell. Here he ran the farm and acted as itinerant preacher travelling horseback to the various Methodist settlements of Frontenac and Lennox and Addington. His will dated 12 Jan 1867

Dear Cousin

Received your letter yesterday.
Was pleased to know I had a cousin in Kingslin. As you know that is our home town altho we left there many years ago.
There are a great number of people here in Calgary from Kingslin. Some nice people too. I am sorry to say we have lost touch with almost all my relations down there altho I do correspond with a few. (at Xmas time). I have not heard from Joey Wood for years & years. Have often wondered where they all were. Two years ago I took a trip to California by way of the coast route. Went to Vancouver from here and visited Mrs Fred Tronstale.
We had a great old chat about the old days around Astington; Mrs Tronstale was the girl Uncle Josiah & Aunt Ellen Taylor brought up in Astington; I remember faintly your Grandmother coming to visit us when West Slietherry? Portland Ont.

It is usually considered that couples being married in U.S. ports and returning to Canada, did so because there was some reason for the move. Usually because one member was already married. It would appear that Sproul, already an elderly man, chose to return to the Portland area.

It is suspected that both were buried in the Taylor plot, after death.

He was a carpenter and apparently always lived in Hartington.
They had no children, but adopted one or more girls, one of whom was Mrs Taylor's niece. Another girl married a Dr. Snowdale and lived in the far West.

Josiah looked after his parents and was executor of his father's will. He appears to have bought a farm in the Sharpton area, which he gave to his nephew, Hiram Edgar, which farm is still in the possession of the latter's grandson, John E. Taylor, the County Clerk of Kingston Township.

In his will, he left my father, Wesley Burling, about three hundred dollars.
